

WORK AUSTRALIA

WORKING HOLIDAY MAKERS: Finding work after your course

The South Australian College of English and the Whitsundays College of English offer special Work Placement assistance to students who are looking for paid work.

Many SACE Students find work in cafes, restaurants, hotels and island resorts, as well as fruit and vegetable picking in nearby farming areas.

Working Holiday Makers who need help to prepare for and find work

How SACE Can Help:

- SACE WorkOz Programme can help students who need or would like help to find work prepare work documents for job interviews.
- SACE WorkOz Programme assists students to prepare for and find full-time or part-time work in Airlie Beach or Adelaide after their English course.
- SACE WorkOz provides: Job Preparation, WorkOz Handbook, Job Interview Preparation and Practice, Job Interviews

Independent Working Holiday Makers who wish to find their own job/work after their SACE English course

How SACE Can Help:

- The SACE Weekly Job List of current jobs for Working Holiday Makers and Students.
- Finding farm work in the famous Barossa Valley, South Australia. The Barossa Valley is a famous wine region and has jobs available all year. Jobs include fruit and vegetable picking and packing, pruning, general farm work in orchards, gardens, vineyards and farms.

SACE works closely with local Barossa Valley Backpackers and Job placement services to assist working holiday makers in finding work. This is ideal for Working Holiday makers interested in extending their working holiday visa for a second year.
- Finding farm work in Bowen, a regional farming area situated only 50 minutes from the famous Whitsundays and Great Barrier Reef in Queensland. Bowen is also classed as a rural farming area for working holiday visa extension purposes.
- Please note: Working Holiday makers will find it easier to find work if they have their own transport (car).

W: www.collegeofenglish.com.au
E: www.registrar@sacecoll.sa.edu.au